

SOCIETY ON ITS SOUTHWARD FLIGHT TO THE FLORIDA RESORTS TARRIES AMONG THE LOVELY HILLS OF PINEHURST.

Mrs. Frederick F. A. Pearson taking part in a drag hunt given by James Boyd.

Leaving the Carolina Hotel for the drag hunt. Left to right—P. N. Davison, John G. Alley and T. Sternfeld. On the tallyho—Mrs. A. B. Alley, Mrs. Stuart G. Gibboney, Mrs. N. W. Peters, Mrs. T. Sternfeld and Joseph McAddon (driving).

Robert Hunter, who, with Mrs. Hunter, is spending the winter at Pinehurst.

Photos Copyright Underwood & Underwood

COLD SNAP DRAWS THE CURLERS TO VAN CORTLANDT PARK

A GROUP OF DEVOTEES OF THE QUAIN OLD SCOTCH GAME ON THE LAKE AT VAN CORTLANDT PARK.
Photo by Edwin Levick.

The stones are on the links, lad;
The brooms and tees are by:

The ice is ringing keen, lad,
And a' we need's the rye.
Old Scotch Curling Song